Become a Friend of Art in Healthcare

Art in Healthcare brings art to healthcare environments, improving the quality of life for patients, visitors and staff. Many people admire the work we do, and by becoming a Friend you can become part of our community and receive advanced information about our activities and special events. Becoming a Friend is a really important way of showing your support and provides an important source of income for Art in Healthcare. Join today!

Images from our art collection: above 'Magic Casket' by Alan Davie; right 'Blue Heron' by David Michie. We make artworks such as these available for display at healthcare venues for the enjoyment of patients, staff and visitors.

We also bring artist-led workshops to the patients and residents of healthcare venues. To the left is artist Emily Learmont working with the residents of Sunnyside Court sheltered housing scheme and above is a beautiful artwork created at a workshop run at Rachel House children's hospice.

If you would like to become a Friend of Art in Healthcare, please fill in your details on the other side of this form and on the attached Direct Debit instruction, and return both forms to us at the address given overleaf.

Your Details

An individual Friend subscription costs £24 per year and couples can join for £36 per year. This can be paid by Direct Debit in either monthly or annual instalments. Please indicate how you would like to pay by ticking one of the boxes below
